Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from For Gold or Soul?: The Story of a Great Department Store The monster department store of Messrs. Denton, Day Co. was thronged with shoppers, although the morning was still young. Scores of pale-faced women and narrow-chested men stood behind the counters, while cash girls, with waxen cheeks and scrawny figures, darted here and there on their ceaseless errands. On the fifth floor of the building, where the firm s offices were quartered, a score or more of anxious girls and women waited eagerly for an opportunity to enter their applications for service. At last a private door was opened by an elfish-looking boy, and the earliest applicant was allowed to enter, the boy warning her, as she did so, to be quick about it. So you are looking for work? Well, what can you do? Got any references? Talk fast, for I have no time to waste on applicants. The speaker was Mr. Duncan Forbes, junior partner, as well as business superintendent of the establishment, and the person spoken to was a beautiful girl, about seventeen years of age, who had called to apply for a position as saleswoman. I have never worked before, sir, said the young girl, trying to obey and talk as rapidly as possible, but I am sure I could learn in a very short time, if only you will give me a trial as saleswoman. Do please give me a trial! About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more at This book is a reproduction of an important historical work.
